Benzar Guru Mantra's Benefits and Syllable Commentary

Tulku Karma Lingpa's Terma: The Benzar Guru Mantra's Benefits and Syllable Commentary

BENZAR GURU DEWA DAKINI HUNG

Homage to the Guru, Yidam, and Dakini!

I, the woman Yeshe Tsogyal, having offered vast outer, inner, and secret mandalas, said:

KYE! O Master Pema Jungney, since no greater kindness has ever been shown us, all the beings of Tibet, than your deeds of vast benefit for our present and future lives, and in the future such will not come again, thus even though I am a woman I have no doubt regarding the blessing of your quintessence-like practice that has been bestowed. Future sentient beings will be inundated with thoughts; they will be savage, with backward views of the sacred dharma and scorn for the unsurpassable dharma of Secret Mantra in particular. In those times, sickness, famine, and war will spread to all beings; the lands of China, Tibet, and Hor in particular will be like crushed anthills; and it will be a time of pain for the people of Tibet. You have given many methods for mending all this, yet future individuals will not have the time to practice them. To those wanting to practice even the tiniest bit, powerful obstacles will come. There will be disharmony; and requisite substances and conduct will be lacking. Such evil times are extremely difficult to avert. If one relies on your practice of the benzar guru mantra alone in such times, what are the benefits? For the sake of the dull-witted beings of the future, teach this, I pray.

The Great Master replied:

O faithful maiden, what you have said is very true. In such future times this practice will be of benefit to beings both temporarily and ultimately, that is certain! Untold instructions and practices have been concealed as myriad earth treasures, water treasures, rock treasures, space treasures, and so on. But in such bad times, it will be extremely difficult for the methods and interdependent circumstances to come together for the fortunate ones. This is a sign of the depletion of beings' merit. Nevertheless, in such times, in the great sacred places, in monasteries, on the peaks of great mountains, on the banks of great rivers, in the places where gods, cannibals, and evil spirits proliferate, at the head or feet of valleys, or at crossroads and so on, if mantra practitioners who hold samaya, the ordained who hold their vows, beings with faith, qualified women and so on generate bodhicitta and in that vast state recite this essence mantra benzar guru as much as they can—hundreds, thousands, tens of thousands, hundreds of millions of times—the benefit and blessing will be inconceivable. In all lands and directions, all sickness, famine, war, fighting, crop failure, evil omens and black magic will be averted. Rain will fall, crops and livestock will thrive and the region itself will be auspicious. In that and future lives and on the bardo's perilous paths, in the best case, in actuality; in the middling, in meditative experience; or at the least in dreams you will meet with me again and again. Completing the grounds and paths in progression, you will take your place in the ranks of male and female awareness holders in Ngayab Ling. Have no doubt!

If you recite the mantra one hundred times, you will be pleasing to others, and food, wealth and possessions will come to you effortlessly.

If thousands or tens of thousands are recited, you will be able to suppress others' appearances with splendor and obtain blessings and power without obstruction.

If hundreds of thousands or millions of recitations are performed, the three realms will come under your power. You will suppress the three planes of existence with splendor and the gods and demons will be bound to your service. You will accomplish the four enlightened activities without obstacle and have the power to bring unfathomable benefit to sentient beings in whatever way you wish.

If you are able to reach accumulations of thirty million, seventy million, and so forth, you will never be apart from all the buddhas of the three times nor separate from myself. All the eight classes of gods and cannibals will obey your orders, honoring your commands, and whatever you commit to their charge will be done. In the best case, in this life the rainbow body will be accomplished; in the middling, at death there will be the meeting of the mother and child clear lights; and at the least, in the bardo you will see my face, appearances will be liberated in their place, you will take birth in Ngayab Ling and there will be unfathomable benefit for sentient beings.

Thus he taught.

O Great Master, many thanks for your explanation that the mantra's benefit and blessing are thus unfathomably vast.

The benefit and blessing of the syllable commentaries on the Guru Pema mantra are limitless, but still for the sake of future beings I entreat you to teach a concise one.

Then the Great Master replied:

O, daughter of noble family, the benzar guru is not the essence mantra of myself alone. It is the life essence mantra of the deities of the four classes of tantra, the nine stages of the vehicles, the 84,000 collections of dharma and so on. The essence mantras of all buddhas of the three times and of the gurus, yidams, dakinis, dharma protectors and so on are all complete in this.

The reason they are complete within it is as follows.

Listen well and hold this in your heart; perform recitations; write it; teach it to all future beings:

If the benefit of uttering the benzar guru a single time
Were to take on form, this world would be too small to contain it.
All beings who see, hear, or think of this mantra
Will join the ranks of the male and female awareness holders, it is certain.
If the infallible benzar guru words of truth
Were to fail to accomplish whatever is wished for as I have said,
I, Pema, would have deceived sentient beings!
But since it is certain I do not deceive, practice as I have said!
If unable to recite it, raise it aloft at the tip of a victory banner
And the beings touched by the wind that blows upon it will be liberated, there is no doubt.
Or write it on surfaces of earth, wood or stone:
Once consecrated, even if they are placed on the side of the road
The mere sight of them will purify sickness, the influence of negative spirits, and obscurations,
And that road will be closed to the ghosts and demons of that land.
Write it in gold upon indigo paper and wear it,
And demonic forces, obstacle makers and negative spirits will not be able to harm you.
After death, if it is not taken from the corpse, then at the cremation
It is certain there will be rainbows and the transference to great bliss.
